

TASTE & TRIBUTE

Sunday, September 24, 2023

*20th annual benefit gala for the Tibetan Aid Project
Berkeley, California*

The annual Taste & Tribute benefit dinner for the Tibetan Aid Project (TAP) will feature 5 celebrated chefs of renowned Northern California restaurants. Led by Peter Armellino of Plumed Horse, Saratoga, participating chefs are Jarad Gallagher of Chez TJ, Mountain View; Claude Le Tohic of ONE65 and O', San Francisco, Jason Pringle of Montage Healdsburg, Healdsburg; and Dustin Valette of Valette and The Matheson, Healdsburg. TAP is deeply grateful for their generosity, and also for Laurent Manrique's vision and guidance.

60 special guests will enjoy an exquisite vegetarian culinary experience of hors d'oeuvres and 5 courses, paired with fine wines from some of the most distinguished California wineries. Taste & Tribute will also feature live and silent auctions including high end works of Tibetan art, fine dining experiences, exceptional wines and unique getaways. Tickets are $350 per person.

This year's redesigned event with elegant Tibetan decor will be held at Nyingma Institute, located in the beautiful Berkeley hills overlooking the San Francisco Bay. More details and tickets will be available on the new Taste & Tribute website coming soon.

Pictured below: founding chef Laurent Manrique, Peter Armellino of Plumed Horse, and Dustin Valette of Valette.

